FREE language taster sessions

As part of the annual UNESCO RILA Spring School: The Arts of Integrating, as well as the various anniversary celebrations of the School of Education (we are marking 25 years of the School, 50 years since the formation of the Scottish Educational Research Association (SERA), and 75 years since the introduction of the first Chair of Education at the University of Glasgow), we are hosting a range of language taster sessions in the languages of our New Scots.

Free and open to all, get your ticket and learn a few words in a new language! No prior experience of language learning needed.
